

Bleed Area

Safe Zone

A diagram illustrating the relationship between a bleed area and a safe zone. The bleed area is the outermost region, bounded by a red line. The safe zone is a smaller, inner region bounded by a green line. The text 'Bleed Area' is located in the top-left corner of the red-bordered region, and 'Safe Zone' is located in the top-left corner of the green-bordered region.